Summer 2008

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer and taking some time off to do things they love. It is the perfect time to relax and enjoy the nice weather. It also provides us with some time to reenergize.

Another fun way to socialize and network is at this year's Long Island Ducks vs. York Revolution baseball game on Saturday, September 13, 2008, starting at 7:05 pm. An added bonus will be a Grucci Fireworks Extravaganza display after the game.

Bring your friends, bring your family and enjoy! E. Marie Doran of the Uniondale Public Library is coordinating the sale of tickets. For more information, you can contact her at dolan49@yahoo.com or (516) 489-2220.

Many division and committee members are working hard to prepare great programs for the upcoming months. Whether you attend one or all, you surely will not be disappointed with the selection.

The annual Legislative Breakfast will be held at the East Meadow Public Library on Friday, September 26, 2008. This is a great opportunity to meet with the legislators and thank them for their support of libraries.

Staying active is an important component of NCLA. Taking a leadership role helps bring great ideas into the association. If you are a member of NCLA and would to become more active in a division or committee, check out NCLA's website for more details at www.ncla.info.

The next NCLA Executive Board meeting will be on Friday, September 12, 2008, in the Andrew Geddes Meeting Room at NLS.

NCLA President*

NCLA MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

Summer is in full swing, the heat and humidity of a typical New York August is with us, however, it seems as if these conditions have also affected our membership growth as well. Since the Memorial Day holiday, our membership roll has increased by only 58 names and it now shows an active membership of 947 individuals and organizations. Once again, we have much work to do if we are to return to our record-setting level of 2005.

While some memberships have lapsed, NCLA continues to encourage its previous members to make their participation fully active by sending in their dues payment as soon as possible. We will keep sending reminder notices – especially those “X” marks on labels and polite requests to rejoin today – to those individuals and organizations who were members in 2006/2007. Please remit your dues today and make sure that NCLA can continue to play its important role in library service and library advocacy.

Reference & Adult Services Division News

On June 11, 2008, there was a RASD program on "Nonfiction 101: The Care and Feeding of Your Nonfiction Collection." Marcia Ratcliff, assisted by Barbara Thomas, both from the Oceanside Library, presented a program on what to order, how to weed, and how to maintain and organize your collection. Over 60 NCLA members attended and the evaluations were very positive.

We have scheduled a breakfast on September 17, 2008. Wendell Jamieson, author of the book, Father Knows Less, and the city editor of the New York Times, will be giving a talk about becoming a published author. He will talk about his experiences while writing the book and discuss what it takes to go from having an idea to seeing a book published. He will also tell us about his experiences about getting an agent and doing research for the book.

The breakfast will be a buffet, and it will be at Carlyle on the Green. We will be charging $25.00 for members and $35.00 for non-members or for members at the door. He will sign copies of his book and there will be a door prize. Please check the NCLA/RASD calendar shortly for further information about registering for this exciting program. It will also be an opportunity to network with your peers.

The response to our programs has been overwhelming. Please make sure to RSVP to our programs ASAP due to space limitations. The last two events were "sold out". We always put the information about upcoming programs on the NCLA Calendar before the flyer is mailed. I'd like to thank the RASD Executive Board (Judy Opatow, Tammie Bianco, Marcia Ratcliff, Stu Schaeffer, Lisa Schaeffer, Sandi Silkes, and Tracey Simon) for all their help and support.

Please contact me if you are interested in becoming more active in RASD next year. The Nominating Committee is putting together the slate of nominees for 2009.

Hope that everyone is having a great summer!

Karen Porcella
RASD President

DIRECTORY

Work on the 2008 edition of the Directory of Long Island Libraries and Media Centers will be beginning soon. Copies of tearsheets will be sent to all institutions that are listed in the 2007 edition, and to any new institutions that are providing library service on Long Island. We ask all our members to participate in the data gathering program by telling us about new institutions that we should include, alerting us to institutions that have ceased operations, and encouraging libraries to provide a full record when they return their tearsheets.

Copies of the 2007 Directory are still available for purchase. You might even consider giving a copy of the Directory to a graduating library school student as a gift as they get started on their job search or networking activities on Long Island.

Please note that we understand that the Directory is not a "perfect" document. Finding errors is more easily done when the document is in use. If you spot some of the "gremlins" that appear from time to time, please let us know. We hope to correct them in the next edition.

To offer suggestions for changes or to purchase copies of the Directory, contact Art Friedman, Editor-in-Chief, at 516-572-7883

PR/Programming Division Update

75th ANNIVERSARY

The PR/Programming Division held "The Author's Guide to Planning Book Events" with award winning author Carol Hoenig on Tuesday, July 17, 2008. Ms. Hoenig discussed ways you can market author events at your library by giving tips on how to prepare the publicity, how to receive co-op dollars from publishers, what time of the year works best, and more. If you would like more information on Carol Hoenig visit her website www.carolhoenig.com.

Are you new to the Public Relations or Programming world and feeling a bit lost? The NCLA PR/Programming Division has just what you need!

We've create a packet entitled, "I'm New, What Do I Do?" Enclosed in the packet is basic information that any PR person or program coordinator should know. Some examples are handouts on press releases, free programming, media relations, publicity tips, contract sample, and much more.

If you are interested, are an NCLA PR/Programming member, and would like to get this invaluable resource contact Dolores Nicholes, Farmingdale Public Library. Each packet comes with a small surprise just for you!

Upcoming Meeting:
Creating Dynamic Publications with Microsoft Publisher

Speaker: Ceil Hern, Sharper Training Solutions

Date: Tuesday, September 9, 2008 at NLS

Fee: $10.00 for NCLA Members, $15.00 for Non-NCLA Members (checks payable to NCLA)

Have you ever wondered how to create the perfect flyer or brochure? What about websites and newsletters? Join Ceil Hern from Sharper Training Solutions, Inc. for a hands-on workshop to learn how to use Microsoft Publisher. Space is limited. RSVP to Dolores Nicholes at the Farmingdale Public Library starting August 9, 2008.

If you would like to see what other great programs our division has to offer this year, please check out our wiki at <http://nclaprprogramming.pbwiki.com>

If you missed our Talent Showcase you can request to see our Talent Showcase Binder! It has all the information from the showcase, as well as CD's. Please contact Dolores Nicholes at the Farmingdale Public Library to request the binder.

PR/Programming President*

In April, 1934, a concerned group of 13 Long Island librarians got together with a goal of improving the networking between the public and academic libraries in Nassau County. Their efforts led to the creation of the Nassau County Library Association.

Now, with a membership hovering around 1000, the Nassau County Library Association is preparing to celebrate an important milestone, 75 years of continuous service to the libraries and library staff of our region. In order to appropriately recognize this achievement, an ad hoc 75th Anniversary Committee has been formed. If you have some ideas for activities that will honor this achievement, please send a message to Art Friedman at Nassau Community College (email: friedma@ncc.edu; telephone: 516-572-7883; fax: 516-572-0690).

Note to NCLA Past-Presidents: The Committee would love to have your reminiscences of interesting, important, etc., events that have taken place in our community during your tenure as a member of the leadership of NCLA. Please think of this as the beginning of your memoirs. We will be contacting you to hear your thoughts and how you can be an integral part of our celebrations.

Young Adult Services Division News

Our YA Spring Luncheon on June 5, 2008, at Domenico's Restaurant in Levittown featured Margo Rabb, author of Cures for Heartbreak and the Missing Persons series and was attended by over 30 librarians. After a delicious lunch, Margo spoke to us about her writing process, showing us her first published writings, manuscripts, and letters from her editors. From an essay she is writing, Margo shared insights from Adult authors who write for the YA audience and how YA Literature is perceived by the literary community. These YA lit topics held our attention.

The YASD Executive Board met on June 13, 2008 at Shelter Rock Library to plan for the fall, and discuss the duties of YASD committee members. Additionally, we welcomed Terry Ain from Rockville Centre as our Vice President/President Elect who graciously took over for Ed Goldberg who has taken another position as Syosset. Our board has scheduled a meeting on September 3, 2008, at the Rockville Centre Public Library.

Many of our YASD members sponsor video gaming tournaments and are looking to develop video gaming and software collections for teen patrons. The LILRC workshop entitled Core Collections: Video Games for Libraries on July 23, 2008, at Sachem Public Library from 9:30 am - 1 pm featured Beth Gallaway a librarian trainer/consultant in this area.

Currently our YASD members are in the midst of teen reading clubs, teen volunteer and other library programs, but we are looking ahead to fall events. One early fall program sponsored by Barbara Moon at SCLS and St. John's University is a Graphic Novel Symposium entitled Picture This: Using Images to Illuminate YA Literature from 8:30 am - 3:30 pm at the Bourne Mansion in Oakdale. Over 12 artists/authors of graphic novels will be featured in programs such as "Why I Draw" and "Writing with Pictures". Registration is open through August 21 and is $25. ; contact Barbara Moon at SCLS at 631-286-1600 ext. 1352.

Attention YASD members! Save the date for a Children's and YA Librarian Bowling Get Together on Friday, September 19, 2008, at around 7 pm at Farmingdale Lanes. News will follow; you won't want to miss this fun event with lots of surprises planned!

Other fall programs include the NLS YA Meeting on September 11, 2008, (topic TBA), a possible YASD field trip in October, and the Suffolk County Library Association Children's and YA Lit Conference entitled "The Joy of Reading: Books for Youth Make it Happen" on October 24, 2008. Check the list serves and mail for details. Enjoy the rest of the summer as your teen patrons are "transformed" at their respective libraries through reading and exciting library programs.

Clerical Division News

The NCLA Clerical Division is holding its Annual Bus Trip on Thursday, September 25, 2008, to the Hunterdon Hills Playhouse in Hampton, NJ. The group will see Sam & Bella Spewack's hilarious comedy, "My Three Angels."

"My Three Angels" is the story of the family of Felix Ducotel stuck in a French penal colony and not looking forward to Christmas. Papa is in danger of losing his business; Mama can't afford to prepare a holiday dinner; and their lovely daughter has been jilted by her fiancé in favor of an heiress. They desperately need a guardian angel. The roof leaks and needs to be repaired so Papa hires three convicts – or perhaps three "guardian angels?"

Join the Clerical Division to meet three of the funniest, warm-hearted "bad guys" ever to set foot on a stage in the hilarious and happy comedy.

The bus will depart from the Nassau Library System, at 8:15 a.m. and will return at approximately 6:00 p.m. There will be raffles, games, and fun on the bus.

Lunch choices include fried shrimp and scallops, Yankee pot roast, catch of the day, breast of chicken with fruit stuffing, and Salisbury steak with mushroom and onion sautéed.

The cost for lunch and the show is $70.00 for NCLA members and $80.00 for non-members. Send registration and check (payable to NCLA) to Rosanne Crudo, Syosset Public Library, 225 South Oyster Bay Road, Syosset, NY 11791, by August 25, 2008. Contact Rosanne at (516) 921-7161, ext. 230 for questions.

Long Island Ducks Game NCLA Fundraiser

Just heard from the Ducks people. They will be sending the tickets near the end of August. That should give us plenty of time to get the tickets to you BEFORE the Saturday, September 13th game at 7:05 pm. Fireworks are scheduled. NCLA will be announced on the Bulletin Board.

We are trying to break past records for our attendance at this game. So talk it up and let's get those ticket payments in!

Make checks payable to: Nassau County Library Association. Checks will not be cashed as soon as received.

Send to: E. Marie Doran, Uniondale Public Library (400 Uniondale Avenue, Uniondale, NY 11553) 516-489-2220, or e-mail dolan49@yahoo.com.

NCLA Personnel/Professional Concerns Committee

The reactivated NCLA Personnel/Professional Concerns Committee is in the process of being reorganized during the summer and will begin meeting in late September.

The Committee plans to keep a dossier of libraries' policies as well as union and staff contracts. This would be available to all members of NCLA. The Committee also plans to continue to promote higher standards, performance, and continuing education for all levels of employment in our libraries.

This can only be achieved with your help. If you are interested in joining the committee and in having input and your voice heard, please contact the co-chairpersons at Manhasset Public Library: Bobbi Benigno, 627-2300, ext. 313 or Larry Lederer, 627-2300, ext. 312.

Media Services Division News

On Tuesday, June 3, 2008, the Media Services Division sponsored a tour to The Paley Center for Media in Manhattan. After viewing screenings of vintage television programs such as the pilot for "Seinfeld" and the premiere of "Sex and the City," the group of eight media librarians then visited the research library. The guide demonstrated how to search their online catalog to locate television footage by title, subject, and/or performer.

Many of the television clips available at The Paley Center in Manhattan or Los Angeles are unique items, so their collections are used heavily by film and television researchers.

Winners of the Paley Center DVD raffle were Anne Bauman, Chris Karlssen, and Rachel Taub.

Anne Bauman views the exhibit, "She Made It," honoring women who created television and radio at The Paley Center for Media.

On Tuesday, September 26, 2008, the Media Services Division will be presenting a workshop on "Fair Use of Online Video, Audio, and E-book Content," from 9:30 a.m.-12 noon, at the Nassau Library System.

Information on the "Code of Best Practices in Fair Use for Online Video," Creative Commons licenses, and free use video material will be presented.

Tony Traguado, Media Librarian from the Port Washington Public Library, will follow with a presentation of different websites where free video, audio, and e-book content are available.

The division will be holding a Media Purchasing Forum on Tuesday, October 21, 2008, from 9:30 a.m.-12 noon, at the Nassau Library System. Participants will discuss and share their experiences with different vendors for audiobooks, DVDs, and media supplies.

Both these programs are free for NCLA members and $10.00 each for non-NCLA members. Checks should be made payable to the Nassau County Library Association. To register or for further information, contact Mamie Eng at the Henry Waldinger Memorial Library, (516) 825-6422 or nclanews@hotmail.com.

Library Briefs

The Garden City Public Library hosted a Passport Fair on Saturday, June 21. Laura Flanagan and Susan Nolan, reference librarians, made arrangements for the fair with the Garden City Postmaster Joseph Agricola and Customer Service Supervisor Reena Varghese. Postal Service representatives Raji Thomas and Reena Varghese helped over 100 people fill out the required forms and processed the passport applications and renewals. Participants enjoyed refreshments and DVDs while they waited. Passport applicants also had the opportunity to browse travel books and watch travel DVDs to begin planning their vacations. Most applicants received their passports within a week after the fair. Since the program was so well received, the Library plans to host another Passport Fair sometime in the future.

This year marks the 27th anniversary of Banned Books Week, sponsored by the American Library Association. It takes place September 21 through the 27th and is a reminder not to take for granted our precious freedom to read. The Port Washington Public Library will be inviting the community to participate in a random drawing from a selection of 33 books which have been banned, censored or challenged over the past 75 years.

The Henry Waldinger Memorial Library (Valley Stream) hosted a special presentation of Reptiles On the Move on Thursday, July 24, 2008. Marie Thompson entertained and educated over 40 children and 20 adults with her collection of reptiles.

Valley Stream Children's Librarian Jaclyn Kunz gets cozy with Luka, an albino python snake.

Nassau County Library Association Needs You!

Nominations are being accepted for positions on the NCLA Board of Directors which is part of the NCLA Executive Board. Directors are critical to the execution of NCLA policies and to promoting the growth and development of NCLA. That's why we need you.

My involvement with NCLA first started as an NCLA Director and soon I became president. I can say that being part of this wonderful organization has been very rewarding. There is always room for new ideas and creative thinking. Being involved in a professional organization broadens your perspective and looks good on your resume. In fact, you'll receive credit on the Civil Service exam if you become chairperson of a committee/division or become president.

If you are interested in becoming active, and making a difference in your profession, please email me at debbiepodolski@yahoo.com.
