

Join your friends and colleagues on a bus trip to Albany to meet with your state legislators

Advocacy Day - Wednesday, February 27, 2019

It's time for NCLA's annual Advocacy bus trip to Albany! We need as many library advocates as possible to communicate the importance of libraries in New York State to our legislators.

Travel to Albany and spend a memorable day with your friends and colleagues. You'll be surrounded with camaraderie, lively conversation, and a sense of achievement.

The trip begins on a luxury motor coach. Bring a beverage of your choice and we'll provide bagels with all the trimmings. During the trip you will be given briefing packets that will include the schedule of assigned times to meet with legislators and additional backup information regarding the legislative issues important to our Long Island libraries. If you'd like to be even more informed, you can attend an Info & Prep session being offered by the Nassau Library System (see below).

We'll visit with legislators at appointed times and meet at "the well" in the Legislative Office Building (LOB) to make some noise at the main event of the day - the big rally!

Your job as an advocate is done! Sit back and relax on the trip home! Sandwiches, beverages, and dessert will be served.

THIS TRIP IS 100% FREE!

Why should I participate in Advocacy Day?

Library supporters from across the state will be heading to Albany to speak with legislators about the importance of their libraries and how they are a crucial part of New York's education system.

Our communities need people like you (library staff, trustees, volunteers, users, and Library Friends groups) in Albany on Advocacy Day to help our legislators understand that libraries are a funding priority.

Your personal experiences are powerful. Share your stories about how the library impacts the lives of its community members and why your library needs stable funding.
