We are delighted to announce that author, documentarian, and founder of StoryCorps, Dave Isay, will be the keynote speaker for the 2019 Long Island Library Conference.

Dave Isay is one of the most trusted and respected broadcasters working today. The recipient of four Peabody Awards, a MacArthur “Genius” Fellowship and the $1 Million TED prize, his work taps into the heart and soul of the human experience.

Upon receiving the TED prize, Dave Isay proclaimed his vision for StoryCorps: “to help create a world where we listen closely to each other and recognize the beauty, grace, and poetry in the lives and stories we find all around us.”

Through StoryCorps, Dave is helping to preserve the wisdom and knowledge of humanity by recording history one conversation at a time. A number of his books have been New York Times Bestsellers, including Listening Is an Act of Love, Ties That Bind: Stories of Love and Gratitude From the First Ten Years of StoryCorps, and Callings: The Purpose and Passion of Work.
