For Librarians and Adult Educators

Who Serve or Would Like to Serve Immigrants

Come join Washington, D.C.-based staff from the USCIS Office of Citizenship, as well as staff from the Brooklyn Public Library, for an exciting learning opportunity. This event will provide librarians and adult ESL, EL/Civics, and citizenship teachers and administrators with:

- Information on the naturalization process and test;
- Free materials for the library and adult education classroom;
- Practical ideas to enhance library and adult education services to immigrants;
- Opportunities to meet and interact with Brooklyn Public Library and USCIS District Office staff;
- Information on coordination and collaboration initiatives and activities between libraries and adult education programs;
- Tips to help design “citizenship corners” and immigrant-friendly programs;
- Facilitated discussions between librarians and adult educators to better acquaint each other with their roles, responsibilities, and possibilities;
- Detailed descriptions of resources, where to find them, how to use them, and the appropriate audiences;
