

The NCLA PR & Programming Division
presents

The Ins and Outs of Hybrid Programming: A Panel Discussion

Tuesday, November 16th

2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Location: Zoom

As we move forward, libraries are taking advantage of the hybrid approach to programming in order to serve a wider audience.

Panelists will share their perspectives on everything from the technological side to business and management to programming and marketing in this lively discussion.

Our panelists include:

Chris DeCristofaro from the Sachem PublicLibrary

Marion Dodson from the Oyster Bay-East Norwich Public Library

Sarah Siegel from the Rockville Centre Public Library

Register here: <https://ncla.wildapricot.org/event-4545338/Registration>

Fee: NCLA Members: Free Non-NCLA Members: $15.00

CEUs will be awarded.

Questions? Email Roseann Acosta at racosta@hicksvillelibrary.org